Wise Woman!

DEAR MADAM:

"The Nemo is the most comfortable corset I have

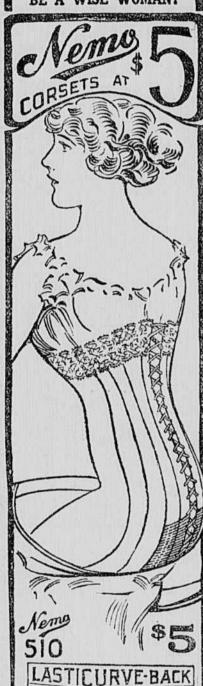

"It wears two or three times as long as any other." "It gives me support can't get in any other corset." That's the testimony of millions of wise women; and it's TRUE.

Nemo patented inventions, features and fabrics have changed the whole idea of corset-making, bringing style, comfort and economy hitherto unknown.

Prove this for yourself.

For every woman who needs perfect abdominal support.

A joy to dressmakers-it makes a full figure look slender.

Endorsed by physicians-it has preserved and restored the health of thousands of women.

BE A WISE WOMAN!

Put not your faith in any ordinary elastic—the Nemo patented elastics are the only ones that don't "give out." A-8) KOPS BROS., Mfrs., New York

HOT SPRINGS

Hot Springs, Va., April 12.—The event of the week at Hot Springs was a drag hunt and race meet at Fassefern Farm, which called out more than sixty people from the Homestead, and occasioned a dozen or more large luncheon parties. In a point-to-point race of two miles, in which there was some cross-country riding, and hurdle jumping with the finish on the track, the winner was Diapin, a three-year-old Albemarle thoroughbred, recently bought by bemarle thoroughbred, recently bought by Henry Albert, which won a cup in the Easter race meet, and promises to develop into an unusually fine race horse. G. M. Watkins, of Washington, finished second, riding Dixle, and Charles H. Palmer, of Rochester, came third, riding Cyclone. The cup offered by the Fassefern Hunt Club to the winner in two out of three half-mile running races on the flat, was captured by J. W. Hamilton's St. Regis, ridden by Martin Thomas.

Harrie T. Lindeburg, who fell from his horse in a race meet here last autumn and fractured his skull, was one of the judges. Others were Robert Waller, of New York, and Edward A. Sumner, of Detroit.
